

Satellite radio is the best thing since the invention of TV. Let local stations compete! If there free services can't compete against services that are subscription based, let them die.